RABBI VAN LANCKTON

My dear friends,

Two international crises that could have enormous consequences for Israel have dominated the news: the Iranian drive to obtain nuclear weapons, and the emergence of the self-proclaimed “Islamic State” or ISIS.

I hope the United States will take a far stronger position in opposition to Iran’s nuclear weapon ambitions. Alice and I look forward to learning more at the AIPAC policy conference in Washington March 1-3 and to hearing Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu when he addresses AIPAC and the Congress on March 3. I hope every Senator and Representative will attend his speech and hear his views.

The other development on my mind is ISIS. We make an important, potentially fatal, mistake if we deny that ISIS is Islamic or think we can combat it either by massive military force or by providing better living conditions for potential recruits. ISIS wants a military confrontation with the West, and recruits thousands of Muslims on the promise of joining an apocalyptic end-times movement that will establish the Caliphate so long sought by some Muslims.

I read recently two excellent analyses of ISIS making these points. The first is a column by David Brooks in the New York Times on February 20: click on The Nationalist Solution. Here’s a sample:

People don’t join ISIS because they want better jobs with more benefits. ISIS is one of a long line of anti-Enlightenment movements, led by people who have contempt for the sort of materialistic, bourgeois goals that dominate our politics. These people don’t care if their earthly standard of living improves by a few percent a year. They’re disgusted by the pleasures we value, the pluralism we prize and the emphasis on happiness in this world, which we take as public life’s ultimate end. They’re not joining up because they are sexually repressed. They are doing it because they think it will ennoble their souls and purify creation.

The other analysis I recommend is Graeme Wood’s article in the March issue of The Atlantic: click on What ISIS Really Wants. Here again is a sample:

The Islamic State is no mere collection of psychopaths. It is a religious group with carefully considered beliefs, among them that it is a key agent of the coming apocalypse. Virtually every major decision and law promulgated by the Islamic State follows the prophecy and example of Muhammad. Pretending that ISIS isn’t actually a religious, millenarian group, with theology that must be understood to be combatted, has already led the United States to underestimate it and to back foolish schemes to counter it.

I hope that Iran will be stopped. I hope ISIS will be defeated by its Muslim neighbors without military involvement of the United States. The future of Israel could depend on the outcome of these crises.

From Your President....

Do you believe all of the snow, ice and cold weather we have had? We should all plan to go somewhere warm next year! For those of you are or who have been able to spend some time in a warmer climate, we are all jealous!! I think I said the same thing last year. Unfortunately, Punxsutawney Phil did see his shadow so it looks like six more weeks of winter. The good news is that daylight savings time begins at 2:00 A.M. on March 8. That seems right around the corner.

Despite the weather, however, we have a few wonderful things to report. First, a SPECIAL THANK YOU to all who contributed with an end of year donation. We collected almost $7,244!! Your generosity is truly appreciated and will help to continue to sustain us as a congregation. For those who have not yet had a chance to contribute, it's still not too late. A special THANK YOU to the Sisterhood for their very generous donation of $10,000 towards our new roof. The Sisterhood has worked very hard since the inception of the temple to raise funds and has been a wonderful supporter of the temple. The timing of the donation was perfect; just in time for this miserable winter weather.

Upcoming events include Shabbat Across America on Saturday, March 7. We will have a special Kiddush that day. On Sunday March 15, at 9:30 A.M., we are scheduled for our Sweetheart Breakfast, which is open to all. Mark your calendars. Both events will bring us together as a congregation and help with the transition to spring. In the meantime, consider attending a Shabbat service. We are so fortunate to have Rabbi Lanckton and Cantor Grossman as our religious leaders. You will be surprised how much you enjoy it.

Finally, thank you, again, to all who volunteer so hard to keep our temple going. Your tireless efforts are sincerely appreciated by all. If you have been "sitting on the sidelines" for a while, for whatever reason, consider participating a little more by helping out in any way you can. It is only through active participation and financial support that our temple is being kept alive. We are always looking for help in our kitchen on Saturday mornings. Please consider volunteering, even for an hour or so for set up or clean up. Contact Paul Goldman at paulag@beld.net for more information.

I wish you and your family continued good health and look forward to seeing you soon at temple.

An interview with a Temple B'nai Shalom Bar Mitzvah

Harrison Paul Goodman

To the great joy of the congregation this past fall, Harrison Paul Goodman (named after a great-Uncle Harold, a Professor at Brandeis who also worked for NASA as a xenobiologist with the first Mars Mission) became a Bar Mitzvah at Temple B'nai Shalom. Harrison began his life in Manhattan on September 10, 2001. He now lives with his parents Ben & Jean and his brothers Leonid (Leo), David & Samuel in Quincy not far from his grandparents Harold & Rona Goodman. He comes through a long line of Kohen's and is still seen at Shabbat Services!

An interview with Harrison Goodman:

1. What school do you attend and what is your grade?

British International School of Boston - Year 8 (Seventh Grade)

2. What is your favorite subject in school and why?

History because the teacher is awesome & science is always awesome.

3. What was the last book you enjoyed reading?

Lord of the Rings by Tolkien.

4. What was your favorite vacation?

Yellowstone - nature is amazing.

5. Studying for your Bar/Bat Mitzvah, what did you find most difficult?

Learning the tunes, but after that it was easier.

6. Studying for your Bar/Bat Mitzvah, what most impressed you?

I was much better at the end than at the beginning of my studying. It was hard when I started studying but was very easy on the day of my Bar Mitzvah.

7. What did you learn from your Parsha?

I learned that God had a slightly under told statement about defending the Jews from frankly everything. It is very difficult to understand in history and current politics.

8. Who inspired you most either before or during your study?

My family.

9. Is there anything that would have improved your study process?

Quieter brothers would be good.

10. What stands out in your memory from your Bar/Bat Mitzvah day?

It went so much faster than I expected it to be. I was nervous, but not worried. Flu shots made me more nervous because I was prepared for my Bar Mitzvah.

11. What will you say to your siblings/other children to encourage them to study and have a Bar/Bat Mitzvah?

It was worth it because it was interesting and I learned so much. Plus my parents are treating me more like an adult.

12. Is there anything you would like to say about your experience?

It went by much faster than I expected. It seemed like just about 10 minutes long. Preparing for it was long but the Bar Mitzvah services were fast.

13. Is there anything your PARENTS would like to say about your experience?

The week after Harrison's Bar Mitzvah he asked if we could go to Shabbat services even though he was now past his Bar Mitzvah. He wanted to see everyone that had supported him during his preparations, because he would miss them and the rituals of Shabbat. It almost made me cry because that was the whole point of this celebration. As parents, we had been telling him about how things would change for him after he became an "adult" - a cell phone, no longer sharing a room with his brother, later bedtimes, and more choices in his life. It was very wonderfully gratifying that in this process he focused not only on the secular freedoms, but also on the more important concepts of self-direction and community. Jean & Ben Goodman

Humantaschen Recipe

Ingredients

- 1 cup (2 sticks) unsalted butter, room temperature
- 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
- 2 teaspoons grated orange zest
- 2 tablespoons freshly squeezed orange juice
- 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
- 3 large eggs
- 4 cups all-purpose flour, sifted
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup poppy seeds
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons honey
- 1/4 cup golden raisins
- 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon zest

Directions

1. In the bowl of a heavy-duty mixer fitted with the paddle attachment, cream together butter and sugar on medium speed until light in color and fluffy, 3 to 4 minutes. Add orange zest, orange juice, vanilla extract, and 2 eggs, one at a time, scraping down the sides of the bowl when necessary
2. Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. With the mixer on low speed, slowly add to butter

- mixture until just combined. Divide dough into thirds. Wrap tightly in plastic, and refrigerate for at least 1 hour.
3. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Remove one-third of the dough from the refrigerator at a time. On a liberally floured surface, roll dough to a 1/8-inch thickness. With a 3-inch fluted round cutter, cut out as many circles as possible, and place on a prepared baking pan. Chill until firm, about 30 minutes.
  4. Meanwhile make the poppy-seed filling: Grind poppy seeds in a food processor. Place seeds in a medium saucepan. Add milk and honey. Cook over a medium-low heat until thickened, stirring occasionally, about 20 minutes. Add raisins and lemon zest. Remove from heat. Cool completely before using.
  5. Remove chilled circles from refrigerator. Place each filling into a medium pastry bag fitted with a coupler. Pipe 2 teaspoons of filling into the center of each circle. Whisk together remaining egg with 1 teaspoon of water. Brush edges with egg wash. Fold in sides to form a triangle. Pinch dough to enclose the filling.
  6. Bake the cookies in the center rack of the oven until golden, 12 to 15 minutes. Cool cookies on baking sheets for 5 minutes; then transfer to wire racks to cool completely.
